Data Protection Act 1998

HM Customs and Excise collects information in order to administer the taxes for which it is responsible (such as VAT, insurance premium tax, excise duties, air passenger duty, landfill tax, climate change levy), and for detecting and preventing crime.

Where the law permits we may also get information about you from third parties, or give information to them, for example in order to check its accuracy, prevent or detect crime or protect public funds in other ways. These third parties may include the police, other government departments and agencies.

Notes

ACOLLIDED'S DETAILS

These notes are to help you decide if you should use this form.

- 1. If you are a VAT registered trader importing the vehicle and it has already been sold by you or is intended for re-sale you should complet this form. All parts of the form must be completed in full.
- 2. If you are a non-VAT registered trader or a private individual importing the vehicle from outside the EC for personal use, you must not complete this form. You should obtain a status document from HM Customs and Excise (C&E 386 [Payment of charges due on Motor Vehicle brought permanently into the UK]; or 388 Motor vehicles brought permanently into the UK under a Customs Relief) and follow the directions for registration, licensing and insuring the vehicle in Section VIII of Customs Notice 3 as appropriate. You can obtain these forms from your nearest Excise and Inland Customs Advice Centre you will find their address in the phone book under 'Customs'.
- 3. The following are Member States of the EC: Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, the Irish Republic, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden and the United Kingdom. This form should not be used for imports from any of these countries.
